

WAR BREAD DIET FOR U. S.

RATIONING SYSTEM TO SAVE MORE FOOD FOR ALLIES ABROAD

Curtailment of Consumption to Be Largely Voluntary

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The American people will go on a war bread diet Monday as a part of a war rationing system prescribed tonight by President Wilson and the food administration.

"Victory bread" the food administration calls it. The reduced rations are asked for the purpose of creating a larger export surplus of food for the European allies. Curtailment of consumption will be accomplished largely by voluntary effort but force will be employed wherever permitted under the food control act.

The rationing system as presented by the president in a proclamation and by Food Administrator Hoover in a list of regulations forms the food administration's 1918 food conservation program of which the chief features are:

A baker's bread of mixed flours, beginning Monday with a five per cent substitution of other cereals for wheat until a twenty per cent substitution is reached Feb. 24.

Sales by retailers to householders of an equal amount of sub-flours for every pound of wheat flour purchased at the time the wheat flour is bought. Sale by millers to wholesalers and wholesalers to retailers of only 70 per cent of the amount of wheat flour sold last year.

Two wheatless days a week—Monday and Wednesday—and one wheatless meal a day. One meatless day a week—Tuesday—and one meatless meal a day.

Two porkless days a week—Tuesday and Saturday.

Manufacturers of macaroni, spaghetti, noodles, crackers and breakfast foods, pie, cake, and pastry will be permitted to buy only seventy per cent of their last year's purchases and are asked to perform a patriotic service by using substitute flour.

Flour will be sold thru the regular channels and in such a manner that each community will receive its equivalent share. The food administration will purchase for the army and for the allies as announced recently thirty per cent of the flour output and out of this store will fill emergency requirements if stocks run low in any part of the country.

Wheat millers are required to produce one barrel of flour of 196 pounds from 264 pounds of wheat which represents 74 per cent flour. No patent or special flours may be manufactured although whole wheat flour may be made as usual. Hotels and restaurants will be classed as bakeries and will be required to serve the new victory bread.

State food administrators will be permitted to designate the wheatless meal in each state. Where this is not done the food administration suggests that the evening meal be observed as wheatless.

The president's proclamation besides on the public for a further reduction in consumption, makes a renewed appeal to the housewife to stop the waste of food. It asks general observance of the food administration's regulations and calls on the people in addition to hold down their consumption of sugar.

observance of the regulations will save about 15,000,000 bushels of wheat a month for shipment abroad. This will enable the allies to subsist although their ration will be short.

Statement issued. The food administration tonight issued this statement:

"The following is a summary of the rules that have been formulated by the United States food administration with the approval of the president, in order to effect the further conservation in foodstuffs necessary to support the allies and our own armed forces over the next four months. These rules are effective from the morning of Monday, January 28.

"The effectiveness of these rules is dependent solely upon the good will of and the willingness to sacrifice by the American people. In the last analysis the success or failure of any plan as here outlined rests with the people. We are dependent upon the co-operation of the trades. We have but one police force—the American woman—we depend upon her to organize in co-operation with our state and local food administrators to see that these rules are obeyed by the small minority who may fail.

"Part of the rules will be enforced under the Lever food act, other parts are voluntary and will depend for their success upon public sentiment. Our experience hitherto has shown a willingness of the vast majority of consumers and a full co-operation of the trades to undergo the self-sacrifice necessary to render such measures effective.

"The small minority who refuse to co-operate should not be allowed to defeat the nation's necessities.

"1. As their part in reducing the consumption of wheat flour the consumers of the country are called upon in purchasing such flour, to buy at the same time an equal weight of the other cereals, cornmeal, cornstarch, corn flour, hominy, corn, grits, barley flour, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats, buckwheat flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour and fermented flours and meals. The housewife may use these products separately in making bread, cakes and pastry, or mix them as she thinks best.

"The retailers are to sell wheat flour only with an equal weight of these other cereals.

"2. Consumers will be able to obtain mixed cereal bread from their bakeries who will be required under the license regulations to mix five per cent (5 per cent) of other cereals with their wheat flour, both in bread and rolls and will be required gradually to increase this substitution until beginning Feb. 24, a minimum of twenty per cent (20 per cent) of such cereal is to be used. The food administration strongly urges on consumers the buying of this bread which will be known as victory bread and will contain not less than twenty per cent (20 per cent) of cereals other than wheat. Graham or whole wheat bread will also be given that name, because of containing, as they do, twenty five per cent (25 per cent) more of the wheat grain than ordinary white bread, they too will serve the purpose of saving wheat flour.

"If you bake bread at home use wheat substitutes, if you buy it buy only victory bread.

"3. Manufacturers of macaroni, spaghetti, noodles, crackers, breakfast foods, pie, cake and pastry are not to purchase to exceed seventy per cent (70 per cent) of the wheat flour they used during the corresponding months of 1917. These manufacturers will be performing a patriotic service by using cereals other than wheat in their productions.

"4. Wholesalers will be required under license regulations not to buy more than seventy (70) per cent of their purchases of flour from millers as based on their purchases for the corresponding months of the preceding year and their sales to the retail trade must be in the proportion of one pound of wheat flour to one pound of other cereals, this being the same proportion to which the retailer sells to the consumer unless the wholesaler satisfies himself that the substitutes have been already purchased from another source.

"A ruling has been made that in making any combination sales under this program, dealers shall name a price for each of the articles so sold which shall not represent more than a normal pre-war profit of any of the articles sold.

"5. Millers of flour are to distribute their output thru their customary channels and markets in such a manner that each city, town and district may receive its usual proportion. The wheat millers have been required to produce one barrel of flour (196 pounds) from 264 pounds of wheat. This is a white flour and represents from two per cent (2) to four per cent (4) higher extraction than from last year's harvest.

"6. To assist further in conservation, Monday and Wednesday of each week are to be observed as wheatless days and one meal of each day as a wheatless meal. This applies both in the home and in the public eating place and on such days and meals no—crackers, pastries, macaroni, breakfast foods or other cereals containing wheat shall be used.

President Wilson's Proclamation

Many causes have contributed to create the necessity for a more intensive effort on the part of our people to save food in order that we may supply our associates in the war with the sustenance vitally necessary to them in these days of privation and stress. The reduced productivity of Europe because of the large diversion of man power to the war, the partial failure of harvests and the elimination of the more distant markets for foodstuffs thru the destruction of shipping, places the burden of their subsistence very largely on our shoulders.

The food administration has formulated a suggestion which, if followed will enable us to meet this great responsibility, without any real inconvenience on our part.

In order that we may reduce our consumption of wheat and wheat products by thirty per cent—a reduction imperatively necessary to provide the supply for overseas—wholesalers, jobbers and retailers should purchase and re-sell to their customers only seventy percent of the amounts used in 1917. All manufacturers of alimentary pastes, biscuits, crackers, pastry and breakfast cereals should reduce their purchases and consumption of wheat and wheat flour to seventy per cent of their 1917 requirements and all bakers of bread and rolls to eighty per cent of their current requirements. Consumers should reduce their purchases of wheat products for home preparation to at most 70 per cent of those of last year, or when buying bread, should purchase mixed cereal breads from the bakers.

To provide sufficient cereal food, homes, public eating places, dealers and manufacturers should substitute potatoes, vegetables, corn, barley, oats and rice products, and the mixed cereal bread and other products of the bakers which contains an admixture of other cereals.

In order that consumption may be restricted to this extent, Mondays and Wednesdays should be observed as wheatless days each week, and one meal each day should be observed as a wheatless meal.

In both homes and public eating places, in order to reduce the consumption of beef, pork and sheep products, Tuesday should be observed as meatless day in each week, one meatless meal should be observed in each day, while in addition Saturday in each week should be observed as a day upon which there should be no consumption in pork products.

Continued economy in the use of sugar will be necessary until later in the year. It is imperative that all waste and unnecessary consumption of all sorts of foodstuffs should be rigidly eliminated.

The maintenance of the health and strength of our own people is vitally necessary at this time and there should be no dangerous restriction of the food supply; but the elimination of every sort of waste and the substitution of other commodities of which we have more abundant supplies for those which we need to save, will in no way impair the strength of our people and will enable us to meet one of the most pressing obligations of the war.

I therefore, in the national interest, take the liberty of calling upon every loyal American to take fully to heart the suggestions which are being circulated by the food administration and of begging that they be followed. I am confident that the great body of our women who have labored so loyally in co-operation with the food administration for the success of food conservation will strengthen their efforts and will take it as a part of their burden in this period of national service to see that the above suggestions are observed thruout the land.

(Signed)

WOODROW WILSON.

EXPLOSION OCCURS AT TORPEDO STATION

Eight Civilian Employees Killed and Seven Others Injured—Three Bombs Exploded

Newport, R. I., Jan. 26.—Three bombproofs at the naval torpedo station were wrecked by an explosion of fulminated mercury late today in bombproof No. 2. At least eight civilian employees were killed and seven injured one probably fatally.

Ten others were buried in the ruins of the heavily concreted structures and little hope was expressed that many of them would be removed alive. Captain Edwin L. Beach, commandant of the station said none of the survivors was able to give an account of what happened, but there was no doubt he asserted that the explosion was accidental.

The identified dead are William Caswell and John Francis Murphy.

That the loss of life in the bombproofs was not greater was due to the fact that about noon about half of the usual number of employees in the three bombproofs had been transferred temporarily to another department.

UNITED MINE WORKERS CLOSE CONVENTION

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—The United Mine Workers of America at their biennial convention which closed today with singing of "America", decided to invoke assistance of the American Federation of Labor to present congressional legislation to secure congressional procedures such as required in the decision of the United States supreme court in the case of the Hitchman Coal company of West Virginia.

The court in that case sustained the injunction granted by a lower court which prevents mine workers' officers from soliciting employees of the Hitchman company to join the union. Recently the supreme court cited the union officers to appear and show cause why they should not be adjudged in contempt for alleged violation of the injunction.

In the case of the Coronado Coal company of Arkansas and others who won a verdict of $600,000 against the United Mine Workers as damages under the anti-trust laws for alleged conspiracy to prevent the mining of non-union coal, the union decided to take an appeal to the federal court of appeals. To do this the union has to raise $800,000 as a bond.

As the international union has virtually no funds the districts were called upon to make the funds. Illinois consented to loan $345,000, Ohio $135,000. It was decided to purchase liberty bonds with this money and turn them over to the bonding company that signs the appeal bond.

The convention decided to meet in Cleveland, Ohio, in September, 1919, for its next biennial convention. This is the first time the convention has been held outside of Indianapolis in five years.

CONSERVING WATER AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Melted Snow Keeps the Boilers Going—Old Wells Called Into Use.

Water conservation is on in earnest at the State School for the Deaf. Practically all of Saturday the school buildings were without any city water, according to a statement made last night by Supt. Gillett. The water for the boilers has for a number of days been obtained from a cistern near the boiler house. A certain amount of hot water runs from the boilers into this cistern and the plan has been followed of hauling snow and melting it in this cistern. The hot water and steam act quickly on the snow and it has been possible in this way to secure water for the boilers. As long as the snow lasts this will be possible but "what we are going to do after that, remains to be seen," said Mr. Gillett. "We are of course hoping that a thaw will increase the city water supply and that it will not be necessary to send our pupils home. As a matter of fact it takes about two weeks to arrange to send our pupils to their homes and provide means and method of their going."

Today there will be no Sunday school or chapel exercises in order to save the steam that would otherwise be required for heating the chapel building. During recent days there has been very little laundry work and practically no scrubbing, and for several weeks there have been no bath privileges. The water for flushing has been obtained by pumping from wells located on the institution grounds which had previously been abandoned. Pumps have been placed in one or two of the wells and for others windlasses and buckets are being used. Every possible effort will be made to get from some source enough to keep the school going.

FOUR KILLED IN RAILROAD WRECK

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Jan. 26.—Four were killed and four were injured today near Wyola, Mont., when a freight train on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad crashed into passenger train No. 44 enroute to Denver from Billings, Mont.

The dead are: R. A. Clifford, Crow Agency, Mont. A. E. Murdock, Reno, Nev.

Mary Javk Rabbit, an Indian woman of Wyola, and an unidentified man.

The freight had become stalled on a hill near Wyola and backed down the hill striking the passenger train. The engine of the passenger train was derailed and the smoking car was demolished. All the killed and injured were in the smoking car. The injured will recover.

CHICAGO BANDITS ROB BIG JEWELRY FIRM

Escape With Jewelry Valued at From $25,000 to $125,000—Lock President of Company and Two Stenographers in Wash Room.

BULLETIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—After taking a partial inventory of the jewels taken, Mr. Rose late tonight said that a $200,000 pearl necklace sent from New York to Chicago for sale was missing and he feared it had been taken by the robbers.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Four men, one posing as a detective entered the offices of the Heller-Rose company, jewelers in the heart of the downtown district late this afternoon and escaped with jewelry valued at from $25,000 to $125,000 after locking a member of the firm and two stenographers in a washroom.

The robbers entered the office of the company which is on the ninth floor of the Marshall Field Annex Building shortly after 5 o'clock while Frank E. Rose, president of the company and two stenographers were alone. One of the robbers displayed a detective star and then covered Mr. Rose and the stenographers with a revolver. Later his companions appeared and after rifling the safe all fled.

War News Summarized

The voices of peace advocates have again been raised insistently in the central empires, following quickly upon what is largely regarded as a new declaration of Germany's warlike purposes in her chancellor's speech. Simultaneously a report is current that the Bolshevik government in Russia has decided to continue the Brest-Litovsk peace negotiations and another quite unverified that Austria is prepared to make a peace with Russia independently from Germany.

The peace note in Germany was sounded by Philipp Scheidemann, the Socialist leader, who in his remarks following Chancellor von Hertling's speech pleaded for peace before spring came with its renewed bloodshed.

Regarding Russia, however, Scheidemann's speech was more than a plea it was a warning that the military leaders of the imperial government would be hurried from power if they did not bring about peace with her.

Scheidemann insisted that there was ground for a general peace on the basis of the program laid down by President Wilson on eleven points of which an agreement was easily possible. He was as uncompromising as Chancellor von Hertling, however, as regards Alsace-Lorraine, declaring this territory must remain German. Scheidemann's words compromise perhaps the most radical utterance that has yet come from his wing of the party in the reichstag, the majority of moderate Socialists. In the foreign press comments on the speech of Chancellor von Hertling, however, it has been pointed out that there is as yet no sign of acknowledgement on the part of the German government of any responsibility to parliament and that to all appearance the military party is still in full control and determined to maintain its grip upon the situation.

The Bolsheviks are taking even more energetic action against the German Kaledines and now report an organization of Cossacks from the front into a congress which has declared war on the Cossack chieftain, driven him and his staff from their headquarters and announces its purpose of having him hanged. In the military situation there have been no developments of note. Artillery duels at isolated points, occasional raids and plentiful airplane reconnoitering are reported. The French aerial activity has been somewhat increased remarks the official statements, mentioning extremely successful photograph work carried out to a distance of nearly twenty miles behind the German lines.

THIRD BLIZZARD SWEEPS CENTRAL WESTERN STATES

Storm is Accompanied by Sub-zero Weather and Heavy Snow Fall

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The central west, just recovering from the fuel and food famine and traffic prostration caused by two blizzards, again tonight faced isolation as a result of the third storm in two weeks.

Snow in Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska, Michigan and Ohio was viewed with anxiety by railway men who had just succeeded in digging their roads from the drifts and in resorting to demoralized schedules to approximately normal.

The storm which was central over Wyoming on Friday moved south-eastward accompanied in some districts by sub-zero weather and falls of snow estimated from seven to ten inches deep.

In Chicago while moderate temperatures prevailed the snow which fell steadily thruout the day with the weather bureau predicting no relief until tomorrow effaced the work of a hundred thousand shovellers. The operations of the Chicago Belt Railways were crippled and the surface and elevated lines demoralized. Fuel and food deliveries also were menaced by the drifts which soon began to fill the streets. In many instances passenger trains were cancelled by roads entering the city and the fear was expressed that the storm would seriously hamper the return of freight cars sent to the distant state mines for coal to help fuel the shortage. The situation was regarded as a "black day" by Governor Lowden that he telegraphed to Washington advising against the further diversion of fuel from Illinois in view of the serious condition threatened by the blizzard.

Railway officials declared that a heavy snowfall would tear down the snow walls which are now piled along their tracks and would make the task of clearing them twice as great as it was after the last storm. Columbus, Ohio, reported two inches of snow since last midnight with the threat that sleet falling there may now cause further railway congestion. Detroit Mich., reported a blizzard forecast for tonight with a scarcity of coal reported thruout the state.

Indianapolis, Ind., experienced a heavy fall of sleet with a heavy snow expected in the northern part of the state.

Milwaukee dispatches told of a light fall of snow which upon until tonight had not interfered with traffic.

St. Paul, Minn., reported intense cold weather prevailing. Thief River Fall, having a temperature of 36 degrees below zero.

Snow storms were general over South Dakota with sharp drops in temperatures.

Omaha, Neb., reported that the snow there had ceased but that intense cold and high winds were expected.

Des Moines and Central Iowa reported an abatement of the storm there. Cold waves were forecast for Wyoming, Colorado and eastern New Mexico.

The New York Central the principal trunk line between New York and Chicago not covered by the eastern embargo was sorely hit by blizzards today both about Chicago and in northern New York state. In the latter locality its tracks were piled high in many places with snow drifts deeper than the locomotives which were helpless before them. Reports from A. H. Smith, regional director for the east indicated only a sluggish freight movement over the main line. Passenger trains were many hours late and some were withdrawn.

Much Snow in Chicago

Chicago, Jan. 26.—A third blizzard, more disastrous and menacing than the two previous threats, hit Chicago tonight. At four o'clock this afternoon the weather forecast said that the snow which had been falling all day bade fair to continue during the night. The general superintendent of the Belt Line Railway said that while he was switching cars at a reduced rate today, that if the snow continued the railroad yards would be tied up completely for the third time since January 5th. As fuel and food supplies are at a low ebb because of the previous storm another tie-up, it is said would be very serious. At six o'clock seven inches of snow had fallen and there were no signs of abatement. The temperature at that hour was ten degrees above zero. Since the last blizzard the railways have managed to clear their lines sufficiently to enable cars to

"Early to bed and late to rise" is the latest to conserve coal.

Ice factories are exempt from the Garfield order. That seems very important here with zero weather.

Reports from Austria and Russia are of the most diverse character, and while it is probably true there is much dissatisfaction in both countries, yet all reports must be taken with doubt. The censorship of all news sent out from all countries at war is very strict.

President Wilson is to be commended for the appointment of Edward R. Stettinius to be surveyor of supplies, with authority in the matter of army purchases. It seems to be a recognition of the need of re-organization as suggested by Senator Chamberlain, yet does not go quite far enough.

AS LETTER WRITERS.

The American soldier in camp enjoys writing and receiving letters.
In the Central Military Department alone a total of 3,724,493 letters were written during the last month.
With nearly 300,000 enlisted men stationed within the department, the average would be about 12 letters to each man. The Army Y. M. C. A.
and K. of C. furnish every encouragement to foster this spirit.

A mother's complaint regarding her son might have occurred in this city. It might have, but we have not heard of any of that class so far to join the army. The fond mother said: "He ran away to join the army but I got him out. They shot something into his arm with a needle, and ever since then he has done nothing but play pool. I think it was a pool germ they shot into him."

NO THIRTIETH DAYS.

Eight more headless Monday are ahead of us. There is an indefinite number of meatless Tuesdays, wheat-less Wednesdays, and porkless Saturdays. But, if the plans of the War Savings Committee for Illinois do not miscarry there will be no thirtieth days during any week until the War Savings plan has gone
"the deep." The recommendation the feeling that all the money saved would be at home on Mondays, amounting without meat, wheat or pork on the other "less" days, be put immediately into War Savings Stamps.

A WASTE OF FOOD.

It is a waste of food to send it to soldiers or sailors in training camps or cantonments. That is an official announcement of the Council of National Defense, as follows:

"The Council of National Defense desires to inform the people of the country that abundant food is supplied to the soldiers and sailors in the camps and cantonments, and that the sending of food to these men by their friends and families is not in any respect necessary; that the aggregate quantity of food thus privately sent is enormous, and that much of it, having been conveyed long distances in heated express or mail cars, is more or less spoiled and consequently injurious to the health of the men. Therefore, in the interest of the conservation of food, and also the health of the men,
the Council of National Defense requests the public to discontinue the sending of foodstuffs to the camps."

BELGIUM'S ANSWER

"The integrity of Belgium, the territory of the mother country and colonies, political, economic and military independence without condition or restriction, reparation for damage suffered and the guarantee against a renewal of the aggression of 1914—such remain the indispensable conditions of a just peace so far as concerns Belgium."

This is the answer King Albert and his government return to the pope, and thru him, to the kaiser.
And it is the only possible answer.
These terms are fundamental to peace, fundamental to the security of all free peoples.

"CHILDREN'S YEAR."

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat).

On the anniversary of the entrance of the United States in the war, April 6 next, will begin "children's year." We like the term, in a time of war, as one connoting a survival, even now, of the spirit of him who said: "Let the little ones come unto me." With innocent child life stricken as it is in desolated lands, it is something to feel that here we may begin the first "children's year" with every prospect of serving most of the ends aimed at
by the Federal Children's bureau.
Stated in its briefest possible terms
this object is "the saving of 100,000 lives ordinarily sacrificed to infant diseases." But the bureau has a plan as well as a prospect. The plan includes a nation-wide weighing and measurement of babies and children of pre-school age, an educational campaign to reduce infant mortality, the immediate registration of births, the providing of nursing and medical attendance, parental care and aftercare for mortally children's clinics, the guarding of the milk supply, and the organization of state and city divisions or bureaus of child hygiene.

The bureau announces, as one of the impelling motives of such great work, the conservation of human life "at a time when wastage of men in battle requires the safeguarding of the reserve supply at home." The purpose can be placed on higher ground, and the medical profession has consistently placed it on higher ground in all research and experimental work, leading to discoveries in the last quarter of a century resulting in great reductions in infant and juvenile mortalities. Much has been done, but much more remains to do. The plan includes the registering of 3,000,000 infants during the first "children's year" as means of "affording a fair standard" on which to judge how the American reserve compares with that of other belligerent countries."

REMEMBER THE BOYS WHO ARE OUT IN THE COLD.

May be your sons and may be my own.
Are guarding the flag on the red battle-field.
Then remember the boys nor leave them alone.

Till the doom of the tyrant forever is sealed.
"Out there" in that land far over the sea
For your home and mine they offer their all.
Nor fear they, nor falter till man
shall be free;
Those boys who have answered our own country's call.

May be we shiver and hunger a day,
And give up our silver and give of our gold,
But that is our flag that flies far away.
Then remember the boys who are out in the cold.

ROADS TO RICHES

They send me bunk by every mail,
The men with gorgeous schemes; they tell me I'll send them kate they'll make me wealthy without fail, beyond my wildest dreams. Oh, every day I get a raft of circulars and sitch, explaining how Dame Fortune laughed on gents who tried the sender's graft, and they grew beastly rich.
Why do I labor in my lair, the cheerful writers ask, when, if I'd only buy a share in oil well mine,
or other snare, in opulence I'd bask.
Why do I sprain my back to make a pittance dire to see? If I'd invest in some one's fake I soon would have so big a stake I'd grin at old John D. If I'd invest in orange groves, or buy some gilt-edge stock in mills for making wooden clogs, back-action churns, revolving stoves, I'd soon have lots of rocks. And yet I am content to toil the old time-honored way, to burn at times the midnight oil, that I may see the kettle boil, and buy the children hay. I've known a lot of down-and-outs, poor has-beens broke and sick; and most of them were easy scots, who tried out pipe dreams, shed their doubts, and tried to get rich quick. Why should I long for wealth to burn?

Methinks it is a crime for unearned increment to yearn; so I am satisfied to earn one ruble at a time.

Hackman. She was born July 31,
1854 and was married to Theodore Hierman in 1875. To this union two children were born Aldo W., and La-vena F., who survive her at the Harding.

Mrs. Eliza D. Harding of East Liberty, Ohio, died at the home of her niece Mrs. D. O. Clark, 236 Park street Saturday morning at 10:15 o'clock. Mrs. Harding came here to spend the holidays with Mrs. Clark, and had planned to go to Mitchell-ville Iowa for a visit before returning home. Death was caused by pernicious anaemia. Ernest Harding of East Liberty was called here by his mother's illness a week ago and was with her when she died.

Deceased was the daughter of William and Jane Bucklen Hankins and was born in New Jersey in 1814. The family removed to Ohio many years ago where she had since resided. She was united in marriage

Mrs. Harding was prominent in the social and club life of her home city. She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and was active in its work.

The remains were removed to the probable that brief services will be held here and the body will then be taken to East Liberty, Ohio for further services and burial.

W. N. HAIRGROVE TO STAY
ON EXEMPTION BOARD

Accession to Suggestions from Congressman Rainey and Local Board Members—Letters Explain Situation.

William N. Hairgrove has consented to continue a member of the Morgan county exemption board. This willingness on the part of Mr. Hair-grove was signified in letters sent yesterday to Congressman Rainey at Washington and to Adjutant General F. S. Dickson at Springfield. Mr.
Hairgrove was led to take this action because of a very earnest letter he received from Congressman Rainey, urging him to reconsider the action whereby he sought to be relieved from exemption board duties, and furthermore in response to repeated requests from Miller Weir and Dr.
C. E. Black, associate members on the board.

Several weeks ago in a letter which at the time sounded somewhat violent, Mr. Hairgrove formally tendered his resignation as a member of the exemption board and asked the department at Washington to relieve him from the office. In that letter
Mr. Hairgrove in somewhat characteristic phrases expressed his contempt for war profiteering and his deep deprecation of some methods of procedure that the administration followed in relation to the war. Since the publication of that letter meetings more prominent in Democratic party leadership than Mr. Hairgrove—men in Washington have made charges against government methods even more incriminating. Criticism of the administration by both Democrats and Republicans in war measures procedure brought forth a storm of defense at Washington, but certain facts revealed and substantiated have proven that the charges of inefficiency made are not without foundation.

Mr. Hairgrove has all along insisted that his purpose of criticism was not to further harass the government but with the hope that his criticism might bring beneficial results. The tone of the letters he has sent to Washington and Springfield give indication that his previous action was not taken unpatriotically and that he really desires to be of service to the government in these times of stress. The paragraph from Congressman Rainey's letter asking Mr.
Hairgrove to continue as a board member is written in a way which cannot fail to impress upon the public the real gravity of the situation for Congressman Rainey refers to "our national peril" and says that things are known at Washington which cannot be mentioned in a letter.

Rainey Warns of Grave Dangers

Writing from Washington Congressman Rainey says in part:
Hon. W. N. Hairgrove,
Jacksonville, Ill.

My dear Mr. Hairgrove:

I am in receipt of your letter of
Jan. 18. It has been some time since I wrote to you saying that I would be glad to call at the department in the matter of the resignation you have tendered if you desired me to do so. So much time has elapsed that I had thought you had reconsidered the matter. At any rate I was hoping you had reconsidered the matter and would not press it.

I think if I could see you personally and explain to you confidentially matters which I am not permitted to put in writing as to our national peril, your patriotism would compel you to withdraw the resignation tendered.
I am in a position to look at matters from a view point entirely different from your present view point. I am going to ask you as your friend to withdraw your resignation.
I am not willing to become a party to any action on your part which I think you will regret unless, after due consideration, you require me as your representative to perform this service for you."

Following the receipt of the above letter and a conference with Mr.
Weir and Dr. Black, Mr. Hairgrove wrote to Adjutant General Dickson and to Congressman Rainey. Before writing the letters Mr. Hairgrove also called on W. D. Doying, who had been suggested as a successor. Mr.
Hairgrove asked if Mr. Doying had been informed of appointment or if any thing had been done which would make it embarrassing if he were to decide to continue. Mr. Doying assured him that nothing of the kind had been done and that he had no desire to serve on the board unless it was a matter of the government calling him into service. In his letter to the adjutant general
Mr. Hairgrove said in part:

To the Adjutant General
F. S. Dickson, Adjutant General,
Springfield, Ill.

Dear Sir:

Some time ago I sent in my resignation as a member of the Morgan county exemption board and have been waiting anxiously for some action to be taken thereon.
I wrote also to Henry T. Rainey to go to the war department to use his influence to have me relieved.
I am in receipt of a strong letter from Mr. Rainey protesting against the resignation, and asking me to reconsider it, and saying that if I knew the conditions of matters as he did,
I would serve the government at this time. Not only have I had this protest from Congressman Rainey, but the other members of the local board and a great many other citizens have asked me to reconsider this resignation, so I beg to say to you that if the government has made no definite arrangements as to relieving me and appointing my successor, that I am willing to proceed with the work.

I unquestionably would not want to do anything to embarrass the government in its work of forming an army. I hope and believe that I love my country as well as any other good citizen. It was not thru lack of patriotism at any time that I wished to resign.

You may present this matter as you think proper, and I hope it will receive consideration promptly, as I have been in a disturbed condition

with the board, that is, an uncertain condition, all the time expecting to be relieved, and not prosecuting my duties as diligently as I might, expecting to be relieved. I should like to know at once what action will be taken in this matter.

To Congressman Rainey

In his letter to Congressman Rainey Mr. Hairgrove said in part:—
"I would not under any circumstances embarrass the government in its preparation and carrying on of this war, but desire to assist to terminate the war successfully. I feel that it is no time to rock the boat and if I am guilty, in the least, of doing that I am misunderstood. I want to serve the government the best I know how. I want to be of assistance to the government in this emergency; and while my feeling on profiteering has not in the least changed, I am still willing if those in authority think it best for me to continue to serve the government on this board. You may take this matter up with the war department in the way that you think best, if those in authority wish me to, I will try and if they feel it is to the best interest of the government that some other person should be employed, I will be perfectly willing because I want the government to have the best service possible.

I thank you for your kind letter and am sure that I as one of your friends, would not in the least wish to embarrass the administration, I am.

Very truly your friend,

LIEUT. RUSSEL WITH U. S. TROOPS ABROAD

Cablegram to Mrs. Russell Saturday Brought Good News of Safe Arrival on Foreign Shores.

"Everything fine" was the cable message which came to Jacksonville Saturday for Mrs. Stuart Russell, from her husband, Lieut. Stuart Russell, who is with American forces abroad. Of course the exact source of the cablegram was not given, but it is known that the message came from either England or France. The words are understood to be in code and indicate to Mrs. Russell certain sentences.

A telegram from Mrs. Benjamin of Oak Park brought news to Mrs. Russell that Mrs. Benjamin had just received a like message from her husband, Lieut. Benjamin, who is serving in the same regiment with Lieut. Russell. Both men were at Ft. Benjamin Harrison and it was there that Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Benjamin told them goodbye. As Mrs. Russell was not in Jacksonville Saturday her father, J. W. Lane, gave her the cablegram by phone at Larry, where she is making a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lane.

The cablegram came as a cheering message both for Mrs. Russell and for Lieut. Russell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russell, all of whom have been anxiously awaiting this news from abroad.

WAR MENUS WILL BE SERVED

Some of the women of the county are preparing to serve war menus in the near future for the benefit of the women in Morgan county. There will be a series of what are known as conservation meals to teach housewives the value of foods and the necessity of frugality.

America Expects Every Woman to Do Her Duty

Women of Morgan County: Your country is at war with the world's greatest military power. You even as the women of France, are called, and have pledged yourselves to a stand guard over the world's commissary. That commissary is the food supply of America. There will be enough in it if you will guard it. The men fighting must have food and supplies. The food problem is largely in your hands. You must not fail them. They are fighting for you and all that you hold dear.

Women are being conscripted today. We must adjust ourselves from the business of peace to the business of war, and the adjustment is difficult, and a large part falls on the shoulders of the women, since they are the ones who handle the food for the nation.

Three times a day, therefore, they have the glorious privilege of serving their country; the privilege of helping to feed the world while it fights its way to freedom.

In order to understand just how women can best release the foods that are needed by the allies—the meats, wheat, sugar, fats etc.—a series of war suppers are planned to be given in Jacksonville and also throughout the county, in the different churches. At these suppers menus will be offered which will clearly demonstrate what is meant by substituting this food product for that one which must be sent away. We must study the use of these foods, and then serve them on definite days at definite meals, in accordance with our pledge to the government.

There will be food enough but it can only be procured by the personal service and the patriotic cooperation of us all.

The first of the war dinners will be given on Feb. 2 at Trinity Guild house, beginning at 12 o'clock. There will be a cafeteria service which will continue thru the day, and also thru the supper hour. This is planned in order to provide an exhibit of a variety of foods which can easily be used as substitutes for the foods which we are more accustomed to using and which must now be conserved.

It is hoped the public will show their patriotism in attending all these war dinners and suppers.

It is the work of the conservation committee of the Morgan county unit of the State Council of Defense (Woman's division), and urged as a patriotic duty.

Food will win this war—the nation is seated at one big table; it is your family with them.

The dispatches carry the information that the former secretary of Emma Goldman was recently married. The information also is given that his wife is a former supporter of Mrs. Pankhurst. After association with Emma Goldman we would say that a man need not be afraid to tackle anything even the marrying of a Pankhurst suffragette.

Peoria sent out a dispatch early Thursday morning that mysterious explosions were taking place there which could not be located. At first it was thought the sound was made by Mayor Woodruff closing the saloons that were running after hours. All of the newspaper reporters went out to investigate and found the saloons open. They ceased their investigation instantly. Later it was found that the noise was caused by snow and ice sliding off of the roofs of the buildings.

One good thing about closing business on Monday is that some of the men can stay at home and help their wives to do the washing instead of holding up the wail in some business houses all day.

In Dry Kansas

A dispatch said a meteor flashed across Kansas last Tuesday evening leaving a luminous trail.

Recent events in Washington convince us more than ever of the truth of the statement of William J. Butler of Springfield, Mr. Butler said in a speech delivered in Jacksonville some months ago. "It is preposterous for the democrats to try to run the country. It is all the republicans can do to run it."

Senator Stone's memory seems to be short. We have a faint recollection of Senator Stone opposing the president a few months ago when the republicans to a man were standing behind his war program.

Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania objects to the fact that a root beer salesman and an ex-saloonkeeper have been appointed as munition inspectors. If the senator would get a few shots of the brand of wet goods that are dealt out in Jacksonville he would be convinced that probably these men are qualified in judging explosives. We used to assist drunken men to their homes years ago but since bootleg whisky came into our city we always stay shy of a "stew" for fear he might fall down and explode.

ROOF FIRE SATURDAY

The fire department was called to McCabe M. E. church in Cox street at 8 o'clock Saturday evening where fire had started in the roof by sparks from the chimney. The blaze was extinguished with two small chemicals but with little damage. The fire was in the north roof of the church and with the high wind would soon have developed into a disastrous fire. The department, however, made a quick run and caught the blaze in its incipency.

FATHER AND SON

There is great significance in the designation of a National Father and Son Week. It is not a "campaign." No goal is set for scores or hundreds of thousands of fathers and sons to do certain things and be counted. The plan is suggested merely for the purpose of concentrating attention, in a large way, upon the possibility of living, vital, sympathetic relationship the boy and his father.

The time is well chosen. Normal home conditions have been disturbed, as young men have eagerly taken their places under the flag. Hundreds of thousands of others, older boys, are tugging at the home ties as the call to action stirs in their own blood. Even in younger boys the blood is flowing a little more freely as the war spirit gets into their consciousness.

Many a father has been conscious in a new way of the deeper love that has bound his son to him, as that son has laid off civilian clothes and gone to the training camps; and many a boy has discovered that the father has been closer to him than he has ever dreamed.

It is a good time, as well, from another standpoint. Mere money is not rated as high as it was a year ago. Other things have put money in second place. Many a man who was a money getter by habit, a while ago is a money giver now. The kindnesses of life have taken on new meaning. Genuine sacrifices for others is helping to find its real place in our personal and national life.

In this new atmosphere the finer relationship between father and son will thrive. Business and selfish social life will give way to an increasing sense of responsibility for the boy of the home; longing for the boy's best future will claim new avenues of expression.

There is no time-saving method for cementing the relationships between father and son. Modern efficiency methods have no short-cuts to offer here. The costliest thing in the world is to be a real father to one's boy. It costs money, energy, time, patience, convenience, comfort. There will be heartaches. But it is all infinitesimal in cost, as pays when he realizes too late that he has failed to make real investment in his boy's life.

So, here's to the father and son of many a home in city, hamlet, and by the country-side. That the father may be alive to his responsibility and his privilege; that the son may be worthy of his father's love and name; that together they may find joy in comradeship and mutual love in common service; that they may honor in highest chivalry the mother and daughter of their own and other homes; that they may individually and jointly be followers of the Man of Galilee—these are the wishes for suggesting a National Father and Son Week.—(The American Youth.)

BOYS COLLIDE WITH STUMP; BOTH INJURED

Two Winchester Boys Collide With Stump While Coasting and Receive Painful Cuts and Bruises—Other News Notes.

Winchester, Jan. 26.—John Lagan and James Roosa, two lads about eight years of age, had a rather thrilling experience Saturday afternoon while out coasting. They had enjoyed the sport for some time but in making the descent of one of the steep hills south of town, failed to see or clear a stump which lay in their path, and striking it with great force both were thrown off. Roosa suffered a bad cut on the chin which required two stitches. Both the boys were badly bruised and shaken up.

Miss Ione Kuechler arrived Friday night from Manchester, where she is teaching, for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kuechler. She expects to return to Manchester Sunday.

Robin Dyer arrived Saturday noon

from Camp McClellan, Ala. Mr. Dyer is stationed there with Battery F, 3rd field artillery U. S. regular army. He enlisted April 4, 1917. He is in Winchester for a week's furlough to visit his mother, Mrs. C. H. Dyer.

Mrs. John Burne of Greeley, Colo., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William King, west of town, arrived in Winchester Thursday for a short visit with Mrs. C. H. Dyer and family. She expects to leave for a visit in Canton before returning to her home in Colorado.

SPECIAL PRAYER SERVICES AT THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Thursday, February 7, 1918 is the day of prayer for Colleges of all denominations thruout the whole United States. This annual day of prayer has been quite generally observed for more than thirty years and has been the means of great spiritual enrichment to both students and faculty.

The Woman's College has for several years observed the entire week, and has engaged the special services of distinguished religious leaders. Three years ago Dr. A. C. Piersol, two years ago Dr. James C. Baker, and last year Dr. Jesse S. Dancey, now with the Army in France, were the leaders. This year the College is fortunate to secure for the entire week, the Rev. Dr. G. Franklin Ream, who is the Secretary for Religious work of the Board of Education, giving all his time to visiting Colleges and Universities. He has held several pastorates, the last at Westfield, New Jersey. He was for several years Professor of Biblical Literature at Baker University, Kansas.

Next week the Young Women's Christian Association have planned morning watch services every morning, and special meetings for prayer and conference every evening. President Harker is giving a series of morning chapel talks on the subject: "What is it to be a Christian," in preparation for the week of prayer.

The College asks the prayers of all the Christian people of Jacksonville. Pray for the trustees, the president and the faculty, and for the students. If ever the world needed consecrated Christian leadership, it surely does now. There are great opportunities of service everywhere. Pray that in the Colleges, they may not be "disobedient to the Heavenly Vision" or to the call of the world for Christian sympathy and aid.

Joseph R. Harker.

reach the coal mines in southern Illinois. Pending the return of their cars, numbering several thousand, the city has been on almost a famine basis in its coal supply.

Fear lest the new storm would clog up the roads and make it impossible for the empties to return from the mines and thus precipitate a coal situation surpassing in dire aspects the crisis of the past three weeks alarmed fuel and railway officials.

They declared that a heavy snow fall would tear down the snow walls which are now piled along the tracks and would make the work of clearing them twice as difficult as it was following the last storm.

From the railroads came the word that the situation was little less than disheartening. The trains are now running thru tunnels of snow. Piled high on each side of the tracks are walls of snow shoveled up at the cost of several thousands of dollars.

HOME GUARD KILLED

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 26.—Thirteen home guards were killed last Monday and a number wounded by federal troops at Satevo, fifty miles south of Chihuahua City, in a conflict between the home guards and the federal command, according to a letter received from Chihuahua City today by an American. The federals had confiscated a large quantity of supplies in and near Satevo, the letter stated. To protect themselves from these confiscations, the ranchers and small farmers organized themselves into a home guard and resisted the efforts of the federals to seize their property. A fight followed in which the thirteen home guards were killed. No estimate of the federal loss was given.

TRAFFIC NOT DELAYED.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 26.—Driven by a high wind a fine snow is sweeping over Peoria and vicinity tonight, with indications of a heavy snow fall by morning. The temperature is dropping, at 8:30 p. m. it was 16 degrees above zero. Railroad traffic so far has not been delayed to any great extent. The local fuel administrator tonight said the situation here was satisfactory.

OPPOSE CLOSING OF PORT.

London, Jan. 26.—The proposal to close the port of London to merchant ships has created strong opposition from London commercial interests. The plan was discussed at a meeting attended by London's parliamentary representatives and Riverside interests, and altho the reason for such action was admitted it was the unanimous opinion that some other solution should be found. A deputation of London commoners was appointed to confer with the shipping controller.

The Rejected Man

By Dr. John H. Quayle of the Vigilantes

American arms have lost their first bout with the enemy and lost it on American soil!

For Uncle Sam has been compelled to reject from 68 to 80 per cent of his volunteers for physical reasons, thus removing from the combat forces, thousands of men between the charmed ages of 21 and 31 years, the stage in man's existence when Nature is most kind to him.

This is an economic war loss the nation cannot—must not stand. It is an economic war loss the nation need not stand if the country will repair its man power at an expense of not more than $50 to $100 per man.

Improve Individuals. The individual must be raised to the requirements of the army and navy standards. This can be accomplished within a period of from one to six months and the individual made ready for military service or efficient civic life.

Fail to accomplish this and there will be new heartaches for mothers, sisters, sweethearts and friends, for the enlistment age must be lowered to include the great body of young men between the ages of 18 and 21 years, as well as extended to 40 years. Such is the alternative plan already being discussed in the war department.

In the first draft but a small percentage of 2,500,000 first called men proved available for military service, and the places of the rejects were filled by others probably vastly more needed in the economic world, for many of those who failed physically are of the parasite class—men without occupation who live on the product of others; and many of the rest suffered from minor complaints.

Yet but one to six months under proper medical, surgical, dietetic and disciplinary instruction in reclamation cantonments will make nine-tenths of these rejects fit—and in most cases eager—for military service.

Such is a brief summary of the plan I have laid before President Wilson, Secretary of War Baker, Surgeon General Gorgas of the Army and the plan Senator Pomerene has incorporated in his bill for reclamation of man power in United States to be discussed by Congress.

Slacker Must Not Escape. It is the one burning question of the country today. Shall the slacker—i.e. the unfit physically or mentally—escape his share of war's burden, while the very flower of American manhood is called on to bear the load for him?

"No," a nation of soldier-mothers shrieks in protest, and "No" must be the answer of the entire country, and "Treat every one alike."

"Then" one must reply logically, "adopt the reclamation plan; give these rejects back their physical and mental balance, and give Uncle Sam back eligibles in the place of misfits—6,000,000 of them at least for the army or civic life.

The system is simple. Replace bad habits with very good ones; replace body clogging foods with a simple diet; teach him the value of discipline, and where necessary give him remedial surgery or medical treatment combined with proper exercise, fresh air and a new will power. Then you will eliminate 90 per cent of the imperfections and in their place have men fitted for their country's tasks.

Every American youth would be physically and morally greater if he could have the advantage of such treatment.

This is no visionary uplift scheme, tho its eugenic effect and its result in increase of efficiency, will be nation-wide. The war is setting a new standard of super-men and when the war is over the weakling will be stamped a failure even before he has demonstrated that his frazzled nerves, bad heart, obstructed breathing and bad digestion militate against putting forth efficient effort.

But the principal questions of today are "Soldiers" and "Efficiency at Home." Let us see how to reclaim them from the mass of rejects.

First, the slacker—i.e. coward—must be given confidence. What he needs is a perfected body and an application of what I call "Massed Psychology." By this I mean association with normal chaps, that his patriotic urge may develop while he is being refitted physically.

The German War Machine is an evidence of what "massed psychology" will do for the individual. The first word the German baby learns is "Kaiser" then "Gott," then "Vater" and "Mutter." In building their race of warriors the Germans have left out the finer things so that when the time comes to advance into the face of almost certain death there are no softening influences.

The German soldier has been taught to think along certain lines. Association with others of like mind have solidified his opinions. He has been compelled to keep his body fit for "The Great Effort." The combination of rigid training, simple diet, discipline and "massed psychology" has given him an ineradicable personal psychology.

Physical rebirth of our rejects under cantonment discipline will bring our more highly imaginative Americans a similar viewpoint quickly. Thousands of men, as will be seen by reference to the table appended have been rejected for such minor causes as imperfect sight, flat or weak foot, alcoholism, varicose veins, varicocele and hemorrhoids. Yet a majority of these are curable within thirty days.

The classification of 2,500,000 men based on the Surgeon General's report ending June 30th, 1916 are as follows:—500,000 would be accepted and sent to the cantonments—that would leave us 2,000,000 rejected men. These rejects would be classified as follows:

Veneral Diseases	260,000
Heart Disease	156,880
Ear Defects	146,000
Eyesight	117,140
Flat Feet	96,220
Alcoholism	82,400
Injuries	57,720
Defects of locomotion	76,890
Hernia	51,140
Skin disease	48,520
Respiratory system (lungs)	43,500
Teeth	41,420
Constitutional	34,720
Varicose Veins	25,100
Nervous troubles	24,680
General Defects	23,000
Varicocele	13,380
Deficient Chest	12,140
Debility	10,800
Curvature of Spine	10,040
Overweight	8,780
Hemorrhoids	6,230
Underweight	5,860
Mental	40,580
Nonphysical causes, unclassified	478,140

Take this list to any expert diagnostician—he will tell you that if you give them the benefit of the best medical and surgical skill for the removal or correction of abnormalities, and then give them a finishing course of the right living, disciplined existence of the camp and you will have a physically recreated man fit for the duties of a soldier or civilian and remember that the man from 21 to 40 years of age will be the fathers of our next generation.

MONUMENT QUESTION STILL DISCUSSED

A meeting of the Morgan County Monument association was held at the court house Saturday. The report of the committee was heard with reference to the advisability of holding a public meeting to consider various questions relating to the monument which are now pending solution. After hearing the report of the committee it was decided that the time is not yet opportune for the holding of such a meeting. At the Saturday session the following resolution with reference to the monument were read. The resolutions were offered by John Minter at a joint installation of Matt Starr post and W. R. C. Friday night, and were as follows:

Whereas, There seems to be and is opposition on the part of the commissioners of Morgan county to obey the will of the legal voters of said county in the matter of building a monument in memory of our soldiers and sailors; and,

Whereas, There is no valid reason for delay in carrying out the will of the people regarding the matter; and,

Whereas, The said commissioners as members of the Monument association themselves voted for the design selected and heretofore have acted in harmony with the decision of a majority of the Monument association and now apparently are unwilling to carry out the will of the association; and,

Whereas, It is especially desirable that the monument be dedicated on the corner stone laid as a part of the centennial celebration in Morgan county; therefore,

Resolved, That Matt Starr Relief corps and Matt Starr post, No. 378, Department of Illinois, G. A. R., in joint session assembled unanimously ask and urge the said county commissioners to go ahead and carry out the will of the people as expressed at the polls or give a reason why they should not obey the will of a large majority of the legal voters of Morgan county in the matter of building said monument, and be it further

Resolved, That the county commissioners be notified of the action of the two patriotic orders above mentioned which took place Jan. 26, 1918, with not a dissenting

BOARD DECIDES ON MEN OF CLASS ONE

Three Hundred and Fifty-five Men in First Classification

Exemption Board Completes Busy
Week—Members Now Considering
Claims of Married Men for Class
Four—Local Boards Do Not Decide Industrial or Agricultural Claims.

The local exemption board made good progress in the work of the classification of the questionnaires the past week. The board members have gotten three hundred and fifty-five of the county registrants definitely classified.

The men to first receive notices of their military classification from the Morgan county board are the men in Class One. Included in this group are single men who have filed no claim for exemption and those who have no dependents.

As one board member remarked yesterday the list is made up of "A No. 1" men, and they will no doubt prove themselves as such in the months to come. These men will be the first called for physical examination. It is probable that this will come at an early date, but no definite time has yet been set by the board for the work. The instructions from the Provost Marshal General are to the effect that local boards are to proceed on their own initiative in the work of classifying and examining the registrants.

When the date of the examinations is made public the men will be called in their order numbers, that is, the second number given in the following list.

The board is at present at work listing the names of men to be entered in Class 4, Group A. This classification includes all married men having wife and child, or children, mainly dependent upon them for support. There may be some additions to be made to Class One after the claims of married men have been passed upon. It is probable that quite a number of married men may be placed in Class One, as a result of investigations by the board.

The members of the board are also considering agricultural claims simultaneously with the Class 4 men. It is the unanimous opinion of the board that common farm laborers should be sent to the district board with adverse recommendations as to their deferred classification. Of course these are men with dependents. The local boards do not make rulings on agricultural or industrial claims, merely recommendations. All such cases will be finally passed upon by the district board at Springfield.

The following is a list of the 355 men who so far comprise Class One. The list is divided into a number of groups.

Class One, Division A.

The Evening Line-Up

Both children and grown-ups, with coughs and colds, are all the better for a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar at bed time. It wards off croup, stops itching throat, and hacking coughs, and makes an otherwise feverish, sleepless night of coughing and distress, a quiet and restful one.

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS, Mr. Chas. Bakery writes: "My wife would not think of using any other cough medicine, as Foley's Honey and Tar is certain to bring quick relief. It is especially effective in cases of bad coughs, and we give it to our children and recommend it always as a safe remedy, for it contains no opiates."

PAINS IN BACK AND SIDE

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kansas City, Kansas.—"I suffered from pains in my back and side caused by a functional derangement. I was nervous and had headaches most of the time. So many people recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, I tried it and after taking six bottles I am well. I do not think the Vegetable Compound can be beaten for women's ailments."—Mrs. L. TIMMERMAN, 3011 N. Hutchings St., Kansas City, Kansas.

Women who suffer from headaches, nervousness, backache, the blues and other symptoms of a functional derangement should give this famous root and herb remedy a trial.

For forty years it has been overcoming such ailments of women after other medicines have failed.

If you want special suggestions in regard to your condition, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of long experience is at your service, and your letter will be held in strict confidence.

WILLIAM KITNER EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Thanks Mrs. William Batz for Package Sent—Tells of Country Somewhere in France.

The following letter from William Kitner son of Mrs. Ida Kitner of this city will be of interest to the young man's friends here. Mr. Kitner was a student at Illinois college and also was employed at the public library. The letter follows:

Somewhere in France.

Dear Mrs. Batz:

Have just received your very kind Christmas package and wish to thank you very kindly. You do not know how it cheers one to feel that there are those in "God's country" who think of him and express their thoughts in words.

Could not restrain my curiosity so had to open right away. You surely knew what to send and everything will come in very handy I assure you. Everything was done up so nicely and neatly.

Am having a great time studying French peasant life. Poor people! They farm here just like our revolutionary ancestors. They do not know what machinery is. Of course, each one has a little patch of ground and no one can afford the price of a machine as that would cost altogether too much. Everyone raises enough for himself and is lucky if he succeeds in that.

Hear the firing at the front night and day but am quite a distance away from any danger.

Am ready to do tho, whatever comes. We are having snow here and the ground has been covered now for about a week. We are getting things ready for our next move, which I understand will be farther away from the front than I am now. Assuring you again of my heartfelt thanks, I beg to remain,

Very sincerely,

William.

Nothing else penetrates, heals and strengthens the injured muscles, nerves, tendons and ligaments so promptly. It doesn't burn or discolor the skin and can not cause injury. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store now—limber up! Rub the misery right out. A moment after "St. Jacobs Liniment" is applied you can not feel the slightest pain or soreness, and you can go about your regular duties. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain. IN FIVE MINUTES! NO INDIGESTION, GAS OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

"Really does" put upset stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness due to acid fermentation in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapiesin the largest selling stomach antacid and regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments and turns sour, you belch gas and eructate undigested food or water; head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with indigestible waste, remember the moment Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy in its harmlessness.

A large fifty cent case of Pape's Diapiesin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest antacid for the stomach in the world.—Adv.

POSSES THE POWER OF ALLADIN!

ALLADIN had merely to rub his wonderful lamp and instantly the slave stood at attention. Compared to the power which Thomas A. Edison offers you, Alladin's was limited. For, ownership of that wonderful instrument, the New Edison, means that a group of the world's greatest artists is constantly at your service. A mere turn of the hand and presto! right there in the room peals forth the glorious voice of Anna Case, Margaret Matzenhauer, Marie Rappold, Arthur Middleton, Thomas Chalmers, or any other of our eminent Metropolitan stars. It is exactly as though the singer were there in the flesh. No human ear can detect the slightest shade of difference between the living artist's interpretation and that of

The New Edison

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

Conceive yourself in a crowded concert hall. One of our Metropolitan stars, Marie Rappold, for example, begins to sing. Through the building soars her brilliant soprano voice. Now watch the audience. Note the sudden stir. See the amazement reflected in each face. What has happened? The singer's lips have ceased to move. And still the beautiful aria continues. Surely, Marie Rappold is still singing. She must be. Every lingering overtone, every subtle shade of color is there. But her lips are motionless. What is the answer?

In a sense Marie Rappold is still singing. The New Edison which stands beside her is playing a Rappold Re-Creation. The explanation is simple. First the instrument is started. Then Rappold joins in. Suddenly she stops and the Re-Creation continues. And so completely, so utterly satisfying is the Re-Creation that the listeners refuse to credit the evidence of their senses.

This is the famous Edison tone test; the demonstration which convinces the most skeptical that Thomas A. Edison has succeeded in actually re-creating music.

Come into our store and see for yourself just what we mean by Music's Re-Creation.

PUBLIC SALE
Live stock, farming implements, corn, hay and straw, some threshed oats. R. L. Pevey, Lincoln Ave., 1-2 mile north of Diamond Grove cemetery, Jan. 28 at 1 p. m.ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES
The devotional meeting at Academy Hall Sunday evening will be led by Mr. J. S. Findley, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The Rev. A. P. Higley, who is to have charge of the special meetings the first week in February, is expected to arrive on the evening of Monday, February 4th. He will make an address at the chapel exercises each morning, and at a special meeting held in the evening at 7 o'clock. Friends of the College as well as students are welcome at these meetings.

Several members of the New York Alumni Association have made contributions towards a memorial membership in the Alumni Fund in honor of their fellow member, Dr. Edward Ayers, '77. Dr. Ayers was a very popular member of the New York association.

The final examinations of the semester will occur during the coming week. Most student activities will be suspended during those arduous days.

Word was recently received from Beecher J. Dining, ex. '18, indicates that he has enlisted in the aviation corps, and is now located at Fort Wayne, Michigan.

The College has recently received from C. H. Ward, ex. '77, a very interesting old plat of Illinois College lands. These lots were part of the original campus and were being offered for sale in the early 40's. The College is greatly indebted to Mr. Ward for this interesting historic document which will be preserved among the College archives.

Professor Edward Capps, '87, has accepted the presidency of a boys' summer camp which is to be established on Lake Champlain next summer. The training given at this camp will be both military and scholastic. The work presumably will not interfere with Professor Capps' duties as Professor of Greek at Princeton.

Professor J. G. Ames has been appointed federal distributor for war savings stamps for Illinois College. In order to stimulate the students in the purchase of thrift stamps Professor Ames has very generously agreed to donate the fractional part of a dollar in order to purchase the war certificate. The students are taking a great interest in the matter, and have already invested a considerable amount.

After due consideration the College Faculty has decided not to shorten the college year next spring. Commencement will be held as usual on Wednesday, June 12th. Students who may wish to leave on account of farm work in the spring may do so after taking the examinations and with diminished credit in the several courses. They will be privileged when they return to take special examinations for full credit.

Mr. Carl H. Weber, one of the local "four minute men" spoke in the College chapel Friday morning on the war saving stamp. His address was very forceful, and was enthusiastically received by the students. Corporal Julian N. Frisby, ex. '17, was a very welcome visitor on the campus during the week.

FUEL FACTS

One car of coal—the daily consumption of many a factory—will provide heat for 100 families at least a week.

Since the administration's industrial regulation 457,000 tons of coal have been delivered or are enroute to Atlantic ports for the coaling of ships needed in the war.

In one southern port 30,000 tons of coal were delivered to waiting ships in one day.

Working overtime not only violates a spirit of the coal saving regulation but it consumes more light and fuel than working on Mondays. The fuel saved in the five-day shutdown of one industry alone was enough to furnish power for making machine guns for 100,000 men. Every ton of coal saved will send a transport of 3,000 men several miles nearer to victory.

On the second day of the industrial restriction, one railroad alone sent to the mines 400 cars more than on the previous day.

John E. Williams, U. S. Fuel Administrator for Illinois.

*The Most Beautiful Car in AmericaTHE modest price of the Paige Linwood "Six-39" fails to measure the real value offered in this popular five-passenger car.

Even five hundred dollars more could not buy you greater utility, because the Linwood provides everything a family could possibly require for daily motoring service.

Comfort, roominess, sturdiness, reliability and beauty—those are the five qualities that especially distinguish this car among the light sixes of popular price.

You will like the Linwood and become as enthusiastic over its merits as the thousands of owners now driving it. Ask for a demonstration.

Chicago Specialist

In the treatment of Chronic Disease, will be at the Dunlap Hotel, Jacksonville, Ill., Wednesday Jan. 30, 1917. ONE DAY ONLY. (Returns every 28 days.) Hours, 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Fourteenth Successful Year in Jacksonville. Consultation and Examination Free.

I treat successfully the cases I undertake and accept no fee from those who are incurable. That is why I continue my visits year after year. I have treated hundreds of old chronic diseases in the last fifteen years. I can relieve a great majority of these cases and restore them to health and strength again, especially in those cases who suffer from the effects of pain in the stomach and bowels, bloating, gas, spitting up of food, loss of appetite, drowsiness, loss of energy, backache, rheumatism, and heavy, bad feeling in the head.

IS THIS THE WAY YOU FEEL? Are you tired in the morning and easily excited? Are you dizzy or nervous? Have you a headache? Have you Catarrh—nose stopped up? Gas on the stomach? Hands and feet cold? Pain in the stomach and bowels, bloating, gas, spitting up of food, loss of appetite, drowsiness, loss of energy, backache, rheumatism, and heavy, bad feeling in the head? Have you a weak back, pains in back or limbs? Have you a weak blood—scrofula, skin eruptions, pimples, bone pains, pale complexion and losing weight?

Private Diseases a Specialty: I have been a specialist in the treatment of Chronic Diseases for over fifteen years. I have perfected after fifteen years of study, up to date methods of curing that you need.

NERVOUS DEBILITY—Are you nervous, dependent, weak, tired, no ambition, poor memory, easily fatigued, excitable and nervous, easily excited, and red and blue dreams?

THE BABY AND ENLISTMENT.

Your Own Babies and Those of Poland and Belgium.

"So the days have gone by, each one bringing the Boy a little nearer; each taking away some friend who has been a part of my daily life. Night times, when I have sat with fire in front of our wood fire, and held her hand and talked about the boy, I have said to myself: 'Here is where I belong. To leave her now, with her great sacrifice before her, to leave her to fight it all out alone, while I'm off in some training camp—it would be heartless. I couldn't think of it. I mustn't even let her know that I am dreaming of it. She mustn't have that worry added to the other burden, not for one minute.'"

"And then morning would come, and I would go down to the office. A different office it is from what it was; half the fellows are gone; and every day one of them drops in with his uniform on, and something in his face—some new seriousness, mixed with a sort of peace, as tho his conscience was clearer than ever before in his life—something that makes me envy him all over."

"And I say to myself, 'There were babies in Poland and Belgium.' For thousands of years there have been babies; and every mother who brought one into the world has done it in fear and trembling, wondering whether he, her son, would one day be fed to the cannon. 'They're fighting over there in France to make the world safe for babies,' I'd say, 'and the mothers of babies. And here I sit, as tho I had died twenty years ago.'"

"So the tug of war has gone on inside me. My own little wife and mother, and the wives and mothers of the world. The babies of Belgium and Poland and France, and my own little fellow, whose hands I can feel even now."

Do You Own Your Home?

If not, why don't you? Change this condition right away—begin working for yourself. In the territory along Burlington lines in the West there are countless opportunities for the homebuilder and the investor.

WESTERN NEBRASKA AND NORTHEASTERN COLORADO excel in dairying, live stock and grain raising. Non-resident owners have many well-located farms ($25 to $50 per acre, with terms of payment easy), which they are unable to develop. Any industrious farmer can become well-to-do on one of them in a remarkably short time.

WYOMING—Big Horn Basin irrigated lands—near to beet sugar factories, oil refineries, coal mines and other natural resources—which grow big crops of wheat, oats, alfalfa, sugar beets and potatoes, can be bought at $50 and up per acre. Some very desirable 640-Acre Free Homesteads, in a large area, are still available.

Ask for folders outlining the advantages of these sections. Write me about your plans and I'll give you the benefit of my experience. No charge for this—it's a part of Burlington service.

FARM PROPERTY

No. 229. A farm of 3153 acres, 75 miles southwest of Kansas City, black lime stone soil, mostly tillable but all in grass but 500 acres. Railroad crosses corner of farm. A small town and stock yards on farm, new house, two silos and plenty of other buildings. Price $300,000. Incubance $75,000 to run six years at 6 per cent. Will sell or trade, subject to the loan.

No. 197. Eighty acres, two and one half miles from the square. Land all timber soil. With full set of improvements, convenient to school, near church and market. We can sell stock, crops, implements and everything that belongs to the place and give possession March 1. Price $40,000.

No. 501. In the third ward we have nearly two acres of ground with a house of six rooms, bath and basement under all. Gas for cooking and lighting. One hundred barrel cistern, pump and sink in kitchen, garage 18x24, chicken house 14x32 and a corn crib for one hundred bushels. Price $3000, possession March 1.

No. 502. In one of the liveliest neighboring towns in Morgan county, we have the rare opportunity to offer a new house built by the owner for a permanent home which means that it is worth one-fourth more than if it were built to sell. There are six rooms most conveniently arranged with a summer kitchen adjoining, edge grain pine floors throughout with ship-lap sub-floor. Modern hot water heating system and acetylene lights. There is a nice new garage with concrete floor and a new chicken house.

This house has only been occupied by the owner and is in first class condition. There is about one and one third acres of land all in grass or garden. Will sell for $3500, which, no doubt, is less than it would cost to build and equip the house alone at this time.

MONEY

Orders are coming in rapidly for March 1 money. Don't wait till the last minute and be handicapped and embarrassed and hurried—place your order now and be sure to get it.

PULPIT ELOQUENCE

By Amelia B. Welby

The day was declining—the breeze in its glee Had left the fair blossoms to sing on the sea,

As the sun in its gorgeousness, radiant and still, Dropped down like a gem from the brow of the hill;

One tremulous star, in the glory of June, Came out with a smile and sat down with the moon,

As she graced her blue throne with the pride of a queen, The smiles of her loveliness gladdening the scene.

The scene was enchanting: in distance away Rolled the foam-crowned waves of the Chesapeake bay,

While bathed in the moonlight the village was seen, With the church in the distance that stood on the green;

The soft-sloping meadows lay brightly unrolled With their mantles of verdure and blossoms of gold,

And the earth in her beauty, forgetting to grieve, Lay asleep in her bloom on the bosom of eve.

A light-hearted child I had wandered away From the spot where my footsteps had gambolled all day,

And free as a bird's was the song of my soul, As I heard the wild waters exulting—

While, lightening my heart as I sported along With bursts of low laughter and snatches of song,

I struck in the pathway half-worn o'er the sod By the feet that went up to the worship of God.

As I traced its green windings, a murmur of prayer With the hymn of the worshippers rose on the air,

And, drawn by the links of its sweetness along, I stood unobserved in the midst of the throng;

For a while my young spirit still wandered about With the birds, and the winds, that were singing without,

But birds, waves, and zephyrs were quickly forgot In one angel like being that brightened the spot.

In stature majestic, apart from the throng He stood in his beauty, the theme of my song!

His cheek pale with fervor—the blue orbs above Lit up with the splendors of youth and of love;

Yet the heart-glowing raptures that beamed from those eyes Seemed saddened by sorrows, and chastened by sighs,

As if the young heart in its bloom had grown cold With its loves unrequited, its sorrows untold.

Such language as his I may never recall; But his theme was salvation—salvation to all;

And the soul of a thousand in ecstasy hung On the manna-like sweetness that dropped from his tongue;

Not alone on the ear his wild eloquence stole; Enforced by each gesture it sank to the soul,

'Till it seemed that an angel had brightened the sod And brought to each bosom a message of God.

He spoke of the Saviour—what pictures he drew! The scene of His sufferings rose clear on my view.

The cross—the rude cross where he suffered and died, The gush of bright crimson that flowed from His side,

The cup of his sorrows, the worm-wood and gall, The darkness that mantled the earth as a pall,

The garland of thorns, and the demon-like crows, Who knelt as they scoffed Him—"Hail, King of the Jews!"

He spake, and it seemed that his statue-like form Expanded and glowed as his spirit grew warm—

His tone so impassioned, so melting his air, His hands clasped above him, his Blue orbs upthrown,

Still pleading for sins that were never his own, While that mouth, where such sweetness ineffable clung, Still spake, though expression had died on his tongue.

That time is long past, yet how clearly defined That bay, church, and village, float up on my mind!

I see amid azure the moon in her pride, With the sweet little trembles, that sat by her side,

I hear the blue waves, as she wanders along, Leap up in their gladness and sing her a song.

And I tread in the pathway half-worn o'er the sod By the feet that went up to the worship of God.

The time is long past, yet what visions I see! The past, the dim past, is the present to me;

I am standing once more mid that heart-stricken throng A vision flings up 'tis the theme of my song.

All glorious and bright as a spirit of air, The light like a halo encircling his hair—

As I catch the same accents of sweetness and love, He whispers of Jesus—and points us above.

How sweet to my heart is the picture I trace, Its chain of bright fancies seem almost effaced,

Till memory, the fond one, that sits in the soul, Took up the frail links, and connected the whole;

As the dew to the blossom, the bud to the bee, As the scent to the rose, are those memories to me;

Round the chords of my heart they lay tremulously clung And the echo gives is the song I have sung.

SEVERE SNOW STORMS STRENGTHENS CORN CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—New storms which threatened to hamper the railroad traffic strengthened corn today. Prices closed unsettled, 1/4¢ higher with March 1/2¢ and May 1/2¢. Oats finished 1/4¢. Provisions gained 1/2¢.

High winds were said to be drifting snow and rain, and the possibility of today's corn receipts emphasized unlikelihood of any immediate betterment in regard to enlarged available supplies.

Demand however, was not aggressive and the market eased the last half of the session. Oats jumped to highest prices of this season as the market was virtually bare of offerings.

Buying of influential traders hoisted provisions.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue. Mother. If coated or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

France he had a promising career having received "V. G." reports in all branches of infantry training. He was recently appointed "Bapt. physical drill and bayonet fighting instructor." He applied for a commission and was awaiting an answer at the time he was killed in the neighborhood of Bourlson. The sad news was conveyed to his mother by Lieut. T. C. Walker, who wrote that Sgt. Bonnington was killed while doing his share in a brilliant and successful attack. "I was only a few yards away from him when he was killed," says the officer. He was shot thru the body with a machine-gun bullet and died immediately without pain. His loss is deeply mourned by all of us. He was very popular both with his officers and men.

Sgt. Bonnington was educated at St. Andrew's School, passing a labour examination before reaching the age of 13. For a few months he was in the employ of Mr. Robert, newsagent, "The Spot," afterwards being for a short time in the office of the Derby Daily Telegraph after which he entered the service of the Derby Co-operative Society in the goods' outfitting dept., where he remained until he responded to the call to arms.

WOMAN CITIZEN THEME IN ROUND TABLE TALKS

SPECIAL QUESTION OF HOME IN RELATION TO EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

Mrs. J. H. Danskin Led in Presentation of the Subject—Letters Read From Gov. Lowden, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Mrs. Trout and Local Citizens.

A meeting of the Domestic Science Round Table of unusual interest was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. D. Doying, 611 West College street. The program of the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. J. H. Danskin, who presented the subject, "The Woman Citizen in the Home." In addition to making an excellent address herself, Mrs. Danskin read brief letters from a number of persons who had been asked to express their views on the subject of the afternoon. Letters were read from Gov. F. O. Lowden, Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, state president of the Equal Suffrage association; Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president National American Woman's Suffrage association; Dr. E. L. Hill, Dr. David W. Reid, W. S. Camp, Horace H. Bancroft and Edward G. Saye.

There was a large membership of the club present and they found the program of very special interest. Miss Nelle Self gave a vocal solo, which was well received and her accompanist was Miss Dorothy Doying. Miss Lydia Barrette, public librarian talked in a very helpful way on "Food Conservation." Miss Barrette brought out many points by reference to possible household savings which were new to most of her auditors. Many of the leading newspapers and magazines today are presenting war time magazines and cookery recipes which are practical and have been tried out with good results. It was Miss Barrette's suggestion that Jacksonville housewives who have tried out such recipes send copies to the public library with a statement that they know the recipe to be good. In this way a much more general circulation of recipes economies which will effect needed economies there may be enough of these recipes to combine into a practical war time cook book. Miss Helen Sorrells gave a violin solo, which added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Social Hour After Program.
During the social hour the hostesses served refreshments. Those assisting Mrs. Doying were Mrs. C. Bergschneider, Mrs. A. Shoemaker, Mrs. Bernard Gause, Mrs. Sarah Coking, Mrs. Stanley Quisenberry, Mrs. Louis Kelly, Mrs. O. E. Tandy, Mrs. Frank Hagan, Mrs. Ollie Parker, Mrs. L. B. Turner, Mrs. Harry Cully, Mrs. A. B. Williamson, Misses Nettie and Laura Hayden, Elizabeth Sanderson and Dorothy Doying. Mrs. Danskin's address furnished a very careful and logical review of the suffrage movement with an array of facts to prove that woman's interest in the home had not been lessened by her activities in suffrage work, and in fact, that real interest in the home furnished the inspiration for many women in their desire to secure equal rights. Only a few sentences from Mrs. Danskin's excellent address are given, together with the statements made by Gov. Lowden, Mrs. Trout, Mrs. Catt and Dr. Hill.

Mrs. Danskin's Address.
"But the home—the care of the children—how can the modern mother accomplish things for the betterment of that home and her children's condition. In the realm of brute creation, the female is given the sharper teeth and claws; and as is often said "the female is the more deadly of the species," meaning in her savage protection of her young she exceeds in fierceness the male.

"Well, we human mothers have in our hands today a most forcible weapon for the defense and well-being of our homes and families in the ballot. For one thing there is no doubt in my mind that to be the political as well as legal and moral and intellectual equal of our sons is to keep a more lasting hold on the affections and interests of those our choicest treasures. As a boy finds his mother is well posted on the great events of the day, and the issues at the coming election where her vote will be the equal of 'dad's' or his, as the case may be, there is a great deal less manifest the spirit of the Eton college boy who wrote in his diary, 'Got up; had jolly breakfast; talked with mother about the things she could understand.' There will be less of that spirit shown manifested in the story Mr. Hanley told when here, of a guest's remark to a little boy who had three brothers and no sister. 'What a pity one of you four boys isn't a girl!' 'Huh,' said the youngest, 'I dunno who'd a been 'er. Jack wouldn't a ben 'er; Jimmy wouldn't a ben 'er; Johnny wouldn't a ben 'er; and I just bet I wouldn't a ben 'er.' A like lordly and domineering spirit was shown in a small nephew of mine years ago, when desiring to wholly wilt and wither his small sister, he declared as a climax to his diatribe, 'And you can't never wear pants!' And in these days of women in war-time work, even that reproach is taken away.

"But women in states where they have not the privilege of suffrage find even their homes and children are not their own. In more than six states the law still gives the father the sole and absolute power over his children and their property. He can even 'will away' his unborn child. And as late as 1913 in only twenty seven states has the wife the legal right to her children at her husband's death. Only seventeen states give joint guardianship to both parents. The injustice of many of these man-made laws is what has driven many a mild and home-loving woman into an open and avowed suffrage worker.

"The first time the women were permitted to vote they closed nearly one thousand more saloons. The men had closed the saloons in easy places. But the women cleaned up many of the harder places, especially larger cities and villages. Where the men's vote was reasonably close the women turned the scale on the moral side. For example, in the city of Jacksonville, one year the men's majority dry was less than one hundred. The women's majority dry was over twenty-three hundred. And so you see 'how far that little candle throws its beams!' What the women of Jacksonville did to make the home town safe for their boys and girls have been a stimulus and incentive to thousands of mothers and women citizens in this and other states. To make the home town safe and clean morally for our girls and boys is one of the woman citizen's most imperative duties. And now she can speak with authority. She has a vote. When after the last municipal election we asked for the abolition of the small red light district, was not our request granted more readily because we were voters? Some of you know a year ago a social center located almost under the eaves of one of our churches, that was ruining boys from our so called best families and scattering disease broadcast. Was not the sudden removal of this perverting spot a testimonial to the influence of the women citizen in the home?"

Mrs. Trout's Testimony.
From Grace Wilbur Trout, Pres. Illinois Equal Suffrage Association: A woman who has learned to take an interest in the municipal, state, and national home is far better qualified to take an intelligent interest in her own home. The broader and more altruistic view-point of a woman the better wife and homemaker and mother she becomes.

From Gov. Lowden.
From Governor Frank O. Lowden: My Dear Mrs. Danskin: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th instant. I am pleased to enclose herewith a brief message to your Woman's club. Very sincerely yours, Frank O. Lowden.

The women of Illinois, I believe, have never played a finer part in all our history than they are playing now in this great crisis which grips us. I am sure that even the qualified citizenship which they have received has helped to stimulate them to a more intelligent activity in these trying times. Full citizenship is speedily coming to the women of America, and whatever the desires of some of them have been in the past, all women must now prepare to take up the burdens of that citizenship. Our men have too often regarded citizenship merely as a privilege and not as imposing obligations also. The women of America must not make this mistake.

Frank O. Lowden.
An Alienist's View.
From Dr. E. L. Hill, J. S. H.: Your communication making inquiry if I knew of any woman patient being admitted to this institution who in private life had been active in public affairs, received. I wish to state in reply that so far as I am able to ascertain we have not received anyone of that type. In my opinion the very fact that women are engaged in any of these activities precludes the possibility of them becoming a patient in one of the state or private institutions for the insane.

Very truly yours,
E. L. Hill, Managing Officer.
New York, January 23, 1918.
Woman a Noted Leader.

Mrs. Lillian L. Danskin, Jacksonville, Illinois.
My dear Mrs. Danskin:
It is very difficult to send a message which will really be sympathetic with an occasion and an audience unfamiliar. The best I can do is the following:

It is clear that the great world war will prove the emancipator of the women of the world. It will liberate every woman in the home and make of her a voting citizen. That women will rise to the responsibility thus gained in a firm resolution to make the world better because of their votes, few will deny. What shall be the aim? Probably every woman will have a different one, but all together must we not stand united in the endeavor to educate the citizenship of our country, men and women alike, in the real understanding of the meaning of Democracy, American Principles, honesty in politics?

Must we not together create political standards which shall drive every political privateer out of the political business and supplant him by real statesmanship? The politician is one who works for his own interests; a statesman is one who works for the people whom he serves. This is a big task, but the men of our country is not our adversaries in war, it is the low standard of our own political life. I can assure you from personal knowledge, that there are men in Congress who boldly and loudly proclaim their bravery when talking of war in foreign lands against the Germans, but who tremble in their shoes at the thought of the German vote in their own constituency.

Is it not our duty to so educate our public that we shall never hear of a German vote, an Irish vote or any other kind of a vote, except the American vote?

Yours sincerely,
Carrie Chapman Catt,
President.

DAVID PRINCE BOYS ORGANIZE INTO BASKET BALL LEAGUE

The David Prince boys were organized into teams Saturday morning and held their first practice on the David Prince floor.

More than fifty boys turned out Saturday morning for the first practice and even a larger attendance is assured for next Saturday morning.

Beginning next Saturday the boys will start a seven weeks league schedule which will end with a class tournament.

Physical director Weddell of the "Y" will be in charge of the boys and will officiate for them.

To play in this league a boy must be doing satisfactory work at school and be a No. 1 in conduct. Just as soon as he falls down in either of these he will be dropped from the League until he is able to make up the work.

Every boy chosen on a team must also be present every Saturday or some one else will be given his place on the team.

In the short time of one hour and a half sixty four boys will have played two ten minute halves of basket ball as all of the halves will be alternated.

The schedule and the teams chosen will appear in a later issue of this paper as well as the names of the teams.

At attendance card is being gotten up so that each captain will be responsible for keeping the record of his team and if a boy misses over three times unless on account of sickness he will automatically throw himself off the team.

Each of the eight captains are requested to meet physical director Weddell Monday evening immediately after school closes so that the teams may be chosen and final plans completed.

A novel idea of choosing the teams is to be tried out. They captains are to be considered as equal in playing ability, and they will place the different boys on eight different teams making them as even as they can possibly do so. Then the captains will draw numbers to decide which team he will captain, so it is of the utmost importance that the teams are evenly balanced before the drawing takes place.

ILLINOIS PRESCRIBES SAME MEDICINE AGAIN

Administers Second Dose to Blackburn University at David Prince Gymnasium Saturday Night—Dr. Harmon in Charge of Clinic—Patient Protests at First but Finally Takes as Directed.

Illinois College prescribed the same dose of medicine for Blackburn University at David Prince gymnasium Saturday night as the one administered last week. The clinic was under the direction of Dr. Harmon and was demonstrated in a capable manner before a large and interested class.

Blackburn entered a stronger protest to the dose than was true at Carlinville last week but finally succumbed and took the medicine with as good grace as possible under the circumstances. At the beginning of the underclassmen were allowed to take part in the operation. However, later the more skilled performers were placed in charge and worked with precision and speed.

There was not much to the performance aside from improved form shown by Blackburn. The visitors showed much better scoring ability than was shown in the previous game. This probably was because of playing on a better floor than they have at home.

In the first half Coach Harmon started all of his second string men except Tomlinson who was at center. While these men were in the fray Blackburn looked pretty good and the score at the end of the first half was 18 to 12 in favor of Illinois.

When the first string men were put in the game they immediately showed their superiority. Had the first team been used thruout the score probably would have been larger than that made at Carlinville.

The game Saturday night made six in a row that the Blue and White have won from conference teams. Wesleyan is probably the only team aside from Illinois that has a clean slate. Wesleyan plays here some time in February. Illinois also has a game with Illinois Normal at Normal before the state tournament. It is an assured fact now that Illinois will be placed in the first division at the state tournament.

Foley and Denby were the chief point makers for Blackburn and Duncomb, Tomlinson and J. Daigh led Illinois in offensive work. The lineup:

JACKSONVILLE HIGH WON FROM AUBURN

Coach Hoover's Five Wins in Overtime Game—Dispute on Score at End of Game—Jacksonville
Scores 12 Points in Overtime.

Jacksonville high school took Auburn high into camp at Auburn Saturday night by a score of 25 to 13. The box shows the score to be 27 to 13. This discrepancy came about thru a dispute at the end of the second half.

Auburn did not have a score keeper and Coach Hoover was keeping the score for Jacksonville. The score showed Jacksonville to be the winner by a score of 15 to 13. This was disputed by Auburn players who claimed the score was tied at 13 to 13.

While Coach Hoover felt that he was right he finally abided by the decision of the referee and a five minute overtime period was played. Jacksonville uncovered everything she had and scored a total of 12 points which did not leave any doubt as to who was ahead.

For Jacksonville Reeve again starred. During most of the regular game McElvin kept Reeve guarded so closely that he could not get loose. However Hoover shifted his lineup and when Reeve did get started he ran the points up rapidly. Gustafson was an able assistant to Reeve and scored three field baskets. Strong guarding was done by Greene and Fierke.

For Auburn Laird was the chief point maker, scoring nine of the thirteen points made by his team. The other four points were made by Martin at forward. The game was slow and uninteresting both teams showing but little speed during the regular game. In the overtime period the men of both teams came to life and exhibited some of the fastest basketball ever seen in Auburn. The score follows:

WHITE FAMILY HAS RECEIVED ASSISTANCE

A report was current Saturday that the family of David White of 1067 North Fayette street was in destitute circumstances and greatly in need of assistance. Saturday evening Mrs. E. P. Cleary of the Social Service League stated to the Journal that the White family had received assistance from both the league and Central Christian church. Mrs. Cleary said that both organizations still were ready to aid the family if the request were made. However, she said that the appeal had been made to the police department which was the wrong source.

BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL—The Complete Milk Equal
In fact, if you stop to consider that most everywhere a pound of Blatchford's Calf Meal can be bought for only a few cents per pound, and a pound is equal in feeding value to a gallon of milk, that where it is fed the calf's development is more rapid and the trouble of feeding no greater — you will not feed expensive dairy milk but use BLATCHFORD'S CALF MEAL instead.

OVERTIME WORK NOT APPROVED BY GARFIELD

Fuel Administrator Does not Look With Favor on Effort to Make up Monday Hours Lost—Plumbers Expected to Close—Rulings Sent to Mr. Dunlap.

M. F. Dunlap, local fuel administrator, was asked Saturday for ruling on interpretation with reference to a number of matters relating to the observance of the Garfield closing order. In most of the cases Mr. Dunlap had matter on file showing the wishes of the administrator but in two cases he thought it advisable to telegraph to J. E. Williams, state fuel administrator. One question submitted was that relative to the McCarthy cigar factory. The proprietors asked Mr. Dunlap if it would be allowable to work sufficient overtime in the days following Monday to make up for the Monday closing. The reply of Mr. Williams indicates that the fuel administration will not look with favor upon this plan. The telegram said:

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 26. M. F. Dunlap, Fuel Administrator, Jacksonville, Ill.

Overtime in excess of that normally worked is against the spirit of the Garfield ruling.

J. E. Williams, State Fuel Admr.

Expert Plumbers to Close.

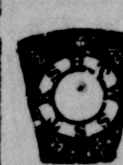

The other telegraphic inquiry Mr. Dunlap sent was with reference to the closing of plumbing establishments on Monday. There had been a statement from the plumbers organizations that it was the purpose of the fuel administrator that plumbing establishments be kept open in order to be ready for emergency work. A question with reference to this matter was submitted to Mr. Dunlap and he sent the wire inquiry. Mr. Dunlap in making this request for information asked if it would be proper for plumbing establishments to remain open if the temperature of the building used was kept under 45 degrees. The answer of Mr. Williams indicates his opinion that plumbers are not exempt from the order. This telegram reads:

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 26. M. F. Dunlap, Fuel Administrator, Jacksonville, Ill.

Intent of order is to close business on Monday.

J. E. Williams, State Fuel Admr.

Franklin has several men who have been stars for several years. The Franklin team is regarded as one of the strongest independent teams in this part of the state. The games should prove of great interest to basketball fans.

THE MUSICIANS' BALL

The ball to be given by local musicians' union No. 128 at K. C. hall tomorrow night promises to be the most interesting dance event of the season. This action guaranteed the presence of ever member of the union so that dancers and spectators will listen to the music of at least 30 orchestra men, and there are no better in Jacksonville. Other arrangements for the dance are on the same generous lines as for the musical program.

COURT HOUSE WILL BE CLOSED TOMORROW

Commissioners Ask Officers to Aid in Effort to Save Fuel by Closing All Offices Mondays.

The board of county commissioners at a meeting held Saturday adopted resolutions asking all county officers to close their offices Mondays in accordance with the suggestion made by Dr. Garfield, national fuel administration. ROY CONKLE IS STRUCK BY TAXI

Roy Conkle the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Conkle of 731 South West street was struck by a Wood Transfer company taxi cab about 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon and badly bruised about the back. He was attended by Dr. C. E. Cole. While it is thought that no bones are broken it will not be known for a few days whether or not there are any internal injuries.

The Conkle boy in company with a number of other boys was engaged hitching sleds behind vehicles. Lee Wiegand of Michigan avenue was riding down town with a farmer in a bob sled and had taken the rope of the Conkle boy's sled and was holding it the boy riding behind on his sled.

The taxi cab driven by Ralph Carter was going south and Carter turned out to pass the sled. He started to turn in sharply and saw that he was going to strike the Conkle boy and applied the brakes. This caused the car to skid. The rear fender struck the boy knocking him from the sled and bruising his back.
